

GORMAN'S GRAND DEPOT.

HOW WE GET TRADE.

By close application and constant effort. Past laurels we count not. Action of the day is the measure of worth. What has been done is history. Here are present facts:

Our Store is a perfect marvel of newness, color, quantity and fashion, from Gingham, the emblem of domestic happiness and work, to Silks, Satins and luxuries.

DRESS GOODS.

Imported and domestic. The creations of the most skilled manufacturer and the selections of the most critical buyer we can show you. French novelties in changeable figures, extra fine silk and wool fabrics in many artistic combinations; exclusive patterns and hundreds of the most recherche novelties, all together are an unequalled assortment of the newest and best dress material to be found anywhere this season.

LACES.

Superior qualities of fine laces for trimming and draperies are arriving, and taking the field with some of the choicest designs and best values in laces we have ever shown. White Embroidered Yokes, Black Lace, Chiffon, Valenciennes, Point Venise, Lace Insertions—in fact the lace world is well represented in our lace department.

PARASOLS, UMBRELLAS.

These suggest April showers and spring and summer sun. Our umbrella counters and parasol stands represent the latest creations of the umbrella manufacturer and the choice of the market—rare and beautiful handles—black and colored silks. Parasols in lovely coverings—the charm of the summer girl. Come early and see our display at the umbrella department.

UNDERWEAR.

The hot rays of the bright April sun reminds us that it will be much warmer later on. We do not mean for you to be rash or imprudent in removing your heavy winter clothing, but we show you in advance all the necessary weights and different materials which the climate will demand. At our underwear counters you will find Swiss Ribbed Vests with or without sleeves, Balbriggan Vests, silk and wool mixed, Light Union suits. Everything in this department can meet the demand of diversified tastes and wants.

DUNMORE.

Miss Susie Connolly, of Binghamton, is visiting her cousin, W. H. Miller, of Pine Street.
Miss Emilie Flynn has returned to the Stroudsburg State Normal school to resume her studies.

One to five applications of Doan's Ointment will cure the worst case of Itching Piles ever was. Can you afford to suffer tortures when a simple never-failing remedy is at hand? Doan's Ointment never fails.

NEWS OF THIS VICINITY TUNKHANNOCK.

J. W. Dodge, of Carbon county, has rented the Spring Grove House at Lake Carey and will take possession about May 1. The house is attractively located and enjoys a large patronage during the summer outing season. Mr. Dodge was formerly a resident of Seattle, Wash.

Professor Rackliff succeeded in organizing a small class of pupils in vocal music at the Methodist Episcopal church Tuesday evening, but there will doubtless be a much larger attendance on Tuesday evening next, if there are no conflicting attractions. Mr. Rackliff's terms are moderate—but $1.25 for twelve lessons, with private lesson to those who desire at 25 cents extra.

The quota of prisoners at the jail is reduced to one.

Mrs. G. M. Hockman has gone to Waverly, N. Y., for a short visit.
It cost the county $135 to board the jury and tipsters during the Wall murder trial.

Mrs. John Young and son, Walter, who have been making an extended visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Walter, returned to their home, in New York city, yesterday morning.

For genial manners and accommodation ways commend to us J. F. Daniels, baggage master on trains 83 and 94. The quill driver of this department is repeatedly under obligations to him for favors done.

A special train is distributing new telegraph poles along the Lehigh Valley this week. The poles are to be re-set the entire distance between Falling Springs and Sayre.

F. F. Drake has gone to Harrisburg in the interest of a client.

A new sidewalk was laid fronting the Keeler property on Bridge street, yesterday.

The rumor that Pratt had confessed to the murder of Waterman since his acquittal was a fake yarn started by some of the boys, who enjoy romancing occasionally to measure the credulity of the people.

Mrs. Kate Downing, of Allentown, formerly of Scranton, is visiting friends in this vicinity. She and her husband are preparing to move to Baltimore.

Another warrant was issued for W. H. Richmond, the alleged detective, yesterday, on complaint of Peter McGee, landlady at the Warren Street hotel. Richmond went to District Attorney Frear Tuesday and obtained a statement of his fees as witness in the Wall case, and then proceeded to draw his pay from the county. The commissioners did not ask for the statement, for they already had it on file.

Richmond then went to Mr. McGee and showed the statement, offering to sell the account at a less figure. His offer was accepted, and he pocketed the money and left town on the next train. Constable Platt went to Pittston yesterday noon, with a warrant, in search of him. The quasi detective has been traveling a rocky road since making his debut in Tunkhannock, this being but one of many scrapes of various kinds he has got into. A man who gravitates as readily to the wrong end of his business as he does his evidently mistaken his calling.

The abundance of counterfeit silver dollars floating about indicates that certain lines of industry are not paralyzed by business depression.

Mrs. Charles Tremayne returned to Ashley yesterday, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. William Fox.

The school board met Tuesday evening and selected diplomas for the graduating class.

A warrant is out for Judson J. Mandeville, a Huntsville man, who pilaged the house of Charles C. Harding while visiting up in this section a few days ago. Mandeville entered the house while the family were away and helped himself to a pair of eggs and a pair of mittens. He then went into the cellar and helped himself to cider, allowing the contents of the barrel to run to waste, after partaking to his satisfaction. He sold the eggs at a nearby grocery store and endeavored to dispose of the mittens.

A Lehigh Valley freight conductor was hauled up before the burgess yesterday morning and fined $5 for blockading a street crossing longer than the law allows. That sort of thing has been going on for some time, and it was determined to make an example of somebody.

Scrofula From Childhood

"My mother has been afflicted with scrofula in her head since her childhood. She is now in her 61st year. She has also suffered from weakness in her back for which she never expected any relief. She has faithfully tried Hood's Sarsaparilla and it has freed her system from scrofula, cured burning pains in her feet and limbs and also a pain in her left breast which prevented her from lying on that side for fourteen years. It has made her feel many years younger."

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures
She has taken four bottles of the medicine. We cannot recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla too highly. IMA R. VANGILDER, Hinds Green, Indiana.
